

Highland Commerce Guild's 2011 Mural Contest Celebrating Life in The Highlands

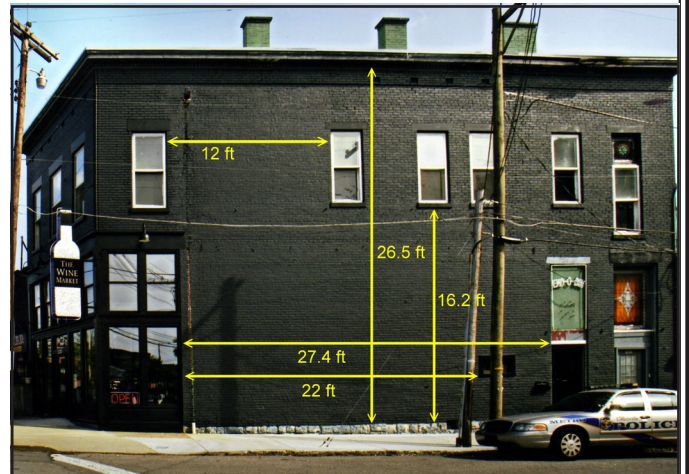

The Art Committee of the Highland Commerce Guild is sponsoring a juried competition to produce an outdoor mural to be painted on the north-facing wall of The Wine Market at 1200 Bardstown Rd. at the corner of Lucia Ave. The subject (or theme) will be relevant to (life in) The Highlands. The winner will be presented with a prize of $1,000. The mural is expected to remain on building beyond three years. The winning design will be chosen by experienced artists, the HCG Art Committee and the property owner.

Entry deadline is August 13, 2011

Terms of Entry: Artists are invited to submit their design that best captures life in The Highlands. Designs cannot be an advertisement for any place of business. A plan of execution with a week-by-week timetable is required along with an artist's statement, prior experience and relevant work. Artists must be at least 18 years old and provide proof of age. Entry Fee is $10 per entry.

Judging: For judging purposes, design submissions should be 11"x17" full color mounted on art board, foam core, etc. but not framed. The winning entry will be selected by a panel of judges in mid August and announced at a reception on August 25 at the Highlands Art Studios, 1220 Bardstown Rd., after which artists may pick up their submissions.
